

Kumulika: Report on the African Commission's 51st Ordinary Session

03.05.2012

The 51st Ordinary Session of the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights was held from 18 April to 2 May 2012. ISHR's 'Kumulika' report analyses developments at the Commission and preceding NGO Forum sessions, for those seeing to build stronger systems for promoting and protecting human rights.

Countries in focus in this report include Sudan, Angola, Somalia, Eritrea and Libya. Thematic issues covered include women's rights, the problem of sexual violence, freedom of assembly and association, sexual orientation and gender identity, and links between the United Nations and African human rights systems. The report also covers updates from the African Commission's special rapporteurs on human rights defenders, women, and freedom of expression and access to information.

Download the report from the 51st session here.