

Questionnaire to assist in submitting information to the UN on alleged reprisals or intimidation

This questionnaire has been designed by ISHR to assist victims, relatives or representatives to submit information to the UN on alleged reprisals or intimidation suffered as a result of cooperation with the UN human rights system. If you consent, the information submitted will be included in a public report.

The questionnaire is not an official UN document. It has been designed to help ensure that victims, relatives or representatives submit the required information.

Key info:

- What – You are invited to provide first-hand information about cases of reprisals or intimidation for cooperating or attempting to cooperate with the UN human rights mechanisms.
- When – the deadline for submissions is 15 June 2013.
- Where – send submissions to reprisals@ohchr.org.

NOTE: the process established under resolution 12/2 is an annual reporting process and will not provide direct protection. If you are concerned about further reprisals or an escalation of the reprisal please contact one of the following:

Background

Every year the UN publishes a report on alleged reprisals or intimidation* against persons cooperating with or attempting to cooperate with UN human rights mechanisms or representatives. This includes the Human Rights Council, Special Rapporteurs, Treaty Bodies, the Universal Periodic Review (UPR), the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, its field presences and human rights advisers, United Nations Country Teams, the human rights components of peacekeeping missions, etc.

*‘Reprisals or intimidation’ include any attacks, threats, harassment, victimization, vilification, discrimination and detriments.

You are invited to provide information about new cases of reprisals that occurred between 15 June 2012 and 15 June 2013.

You are also invited to submit follow up information on older cases included in the 2011 and 2012 reports. This could include, for example, information on whether additional reprisals took place or whether steps were taken by the State to investigate etc. The previous reports referred to cases in Algeria, Bahrain, Bangladesh, Belarus, China, Colombia, Guatemala, India, Iran, Kazakhstan, Kenya, Lebanon, Malawi, Mauritania, Myanmar, Rwanda, Saudi Arabia, Sri Lanka, Sudan, Uzbekistan, Venezuela and Yemen.
